

Patrick Redmond Design

www.PatrickRedmondDesign.com

Board Member and/or Committee Member

(former)

AIGA Minnesota (formerly known as Minnesota Graphic Designers Association), board member

College of Human Ecology (College of Home Economics) Alumni Society [CHEAS], University of Minnesota Alumni Association, University of Minnesota, Twin Cities, board member; Co-chair, inaugural CHEAS Alumni Mentor committee, a forerunner of University of Minnesota's College of Design Alumni Mentor Program

Graphic Design Program Advisory Board Co-Chair, Minneapolis Business College

Minneapolis College of Art and Design, Alumni Scholarship Committee

Task Force Member

(former)

Minneapolis Mayor's Small Business Task Force, member

State of Minnesota Task Force to Study Programs Leading to the Certification of Teachers of Art, member

Charitable, Community, Professional, Business, Educational and Civic Organization Involvement

(former, unless otherwise noted)

Loaned Executive, United Way, Minneapolis

American Cancer Society (telerecruited hundreds of volunteers for fund-raising campaigns)

Greater Minneapolis Chamber of Commerce, first Small Business Trade Fair committee member

Saint Paul Area Chamber of Commerce, member

Governor's Conference on Small Business, alternate delegate

Multicultural Undergraduate Research Program, University of Minnesota mentor

Minneapolis College of Art and Design alumni mentor "Mix 'N Match" event participant

Advertising Federation of Minnesota, American Advertising Federation member

Graphic Artists Guild, national member

Design Institute, University of Minnesota; led first graphic design sessions at University of Minnesota's first Design Camp, 2000

(continued)

Charitable, Community, Professional, Business, Educational and Civic Organization Involvement
(list continued; former involvements, unless otherwise noted)

Washburn Center for Children (formerly known as Washburn Child Guidance Center), assisted with development and communication for 120th Anniversary Celebration, etc.

National Honor Society, member, Pius XI High School, Milwaukee, Wisconsin

Future Teachers of America (FTA), chapter vice president, Pius XI High School, Milwaukee, Wisconsin (Coordinated FTA tutoring program at Pius XI High School)

Scholastic Art Awards alumnus

First Ireland/Minnesota Trade Fair, sponsored by the Irish Export Board, Powers Department Stores, and the Minneapolis Society of Fine Arts (Minneapolis Institute of Arts and Minneapolis College of Art and Design). Note: Patrick Redmond's prize-winning design provided for commemorative Waterford crystal.

AIGA 2013 "Head, Heart, Hand" National Conference, Minneapolis. Note: Patrick Redmond was a panelist on the affinity session topic "Designers Mentoring Designers" with Michael Bierut, Jennifer Kinon, Pamela Mead and Su Mathews

AIGA Minnesota (formerly known as Minnesota Graphic Designers Association), past president and current member

- Chairman > President (1979-1980)
- Board Member (1979-1981)
- Design for Society Award Committee Member (1983-1985), Chair (1985)
- Editor, first AIGA Minnesota (MGDA) Newsletters, early precursors of AIGA Minnesota's digital publication Distiller (See important explanation re: the unique process of producing these early newsletters under "1979 Firsts" at PatrickRedmondDesign.com "Re: AIGA Minnesota" webpage).
- AIGA Minnesota's (MGDA, Minnesota Graphic Designers Association's) first "Design Camp"[®] [when it was known as the Lutsen Design Conference, Lutsen, Minnesota] committee member
- AIGA Minnesota 30th Anniversary Celebration (2007) committee member
- AIGA Minnesota Expert Designers committee (formerly known as "Veteran Designers" [working title] committee) founding member/committee member (2009-2012)
- AIGA Minnesota 2010 "Portfolio 1-on-1"[®] reviewer recruiter subcommittee member
- AIGA Minnesota 2010 Design Camp[®] 30th Anniversary subcommittee member
- AIGA Minnesota 2011 "evolvedesign" roundtable discussion event ad hoc volunteer ("greeter")
- AIGA Minnesota "AIGA Centennial Day" 2014 celebration participant; also provided various comments and images, included among others, for commemorative event-related slide show